

It Might Be Today

EU NEWS

Every Sunday we present a prophecy update. We show how news and trends in the world corroborate centuries-old prophecies you read in the Bible.

The 2500 year old prophecies in the Book of Daniel provide us with very detailed information on the rise and fall of four worldly kingdoms, from the time of his life, until the day when Jesus Christ will return to reign His Millennial kingdom on earth.

From the Book of Daniel, the four prophesied kingdoms are as follows:

1. The Babylonian Empire under Nebuchadnezzar
2. The Medo-Persian Empire
3. The Macedonian (Greek) Empire under Alexander The Great
4. The Roman Empire

Then Daniel tells us that there will be a future revival of the Roman Empire in the area of Europe and parts of the world where the Roman empire held sway.

This revived Roman empire will give rise to an ecumenical and apostate religion, a global government, and a global economy. Out of this kingdom will arise the most evil dictator ever known to man - the Antichrist.

If these prophecies are literal than we would expect to read about a more powerful, a more unified, European Union of nations that could grow into this revived Roman empire.

DailyMail.com posted an article on November 23 titled, *March of the Euro police: The shocking powers of prosecution the EU has over all of us.*¹

Excerpts:

The full extent of the police and criminal prosecution powers that the European Union has over British citizens can be revealed today.

[An] investigation has uncovered an alarming array of new EU controls over justice and home affairs for which no one has voted, and most are unknown to the public. These include:

- Europol, the £60 million-a-year European criminal intelligence agency, whose officers have diplomatic immunity.
- An 800-strong paramilitary police force called the European Gendarmerie Force.
- The European Arrest Warrant, which now allows British citizens to be seized in the UK and sent without appeal to foreign jails for months or years without bail while awaiting trial.

Europol now has more than 650 officials at its headquarters in The Hague, from where it directs investigations across Europe.

When its Euro police officers are operating in the UK they have diplomatic immunity and cannot be touched by the British judiciary.

The European Arrest Warrant (EAW) can also be used to extradite Britons who have been tried and convicted in their absence by a foreign court.

Meanwhile, the European Commission plans to turn Eurojust – a judicial co-operation body set up in 2002 – into an EU prosecutor using powers given by the Lisbon Treaty.

Also new, the European Investigation Order (EIO) gives foreign police forces the power to compel British police to carry out investigations on their behalf. These may include interrogation of suspects, interception of communications and bank records, and the handing over of DNA samples and fingerprints.

Back in September Spiegel Online, a German news source, posted a story titled, The EU Has Finally Opened the Door to Economic Union.²

Another November 23 story, posted by TheTelegraph.com, stated,

European nations need to cede more of their sovereignty and hand greater powers to [a central body] to avoid future crises, the head of the International Monetary Fund has said.³

Read the Bible and you see a revived Roman empire. Read the news and you see a European Union growing in unity and power, consolidating military forces, police forces, currency, and legal processes.

These are the last days predicted in detail by the Bible. Get ready, stay ready, keep looking up. Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
