

IT MIGHT BE TODAY

Halloween TV

Every Sunday we present a prophecy update. We show how news and trends in the world corroborate centuries-old prophecies you read in the Bible.

The Bible predicts an acceleration in occult activity as we approach the end of the age.

First Timothy 4:1 The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons.

Along those lines I was fascinated to discover that on Halloween of this year a new occult television, radio and internet network was launched. HeraldOnline.com published a article titled, Worldwide Illuminati Network Supporting Witchcraft and Pagan Lifestyles To Debut on Halloween.

Excerpts:

A new worldwide network that will support new age, witchcraft, spiritual, pagan and other alternative lifestyles and feature a 24-hour online television and radio network plus Internet on demand services will debut October 31, said co-founders Steve McManus and Elizabeth Sturino.

“People interested in these lifestyles haven’t had a centralized location where they can find the latest information,” McManus said. “With the Illuminati Network, they will not only be able to find such items as their favorite occult radio personalities, but they will also be able to find information on all alternative lifestyle events and issues.”

The network will also have children’s programming for parents who want to educate their children about their lifestyle.

In a clarifying statement on the network's website you read,

We are not the “Illuminati” you hear about in stories and political rhetoric. We are not a clandestine group of uber-wealthy power mongers bent on maintaining a grip on our wealth and power by enslaving you. People like that DO exist in our world. People like that are popularly referred to as “The Illuminati” and references are often made to “The Illuminati Network.” The term has been erroneously applied to these unscrupulous people for some three centuries now. Those people AREN’T illuminated. They are operating in Darkness. A true Illuminatus is a person that travels a path of spiritual ascension, endeavoring to raise the vibration of humanity by instilling hope and offering encouragement and assistance. The true Illuminati do not keep people isolated from one another, ill-informed and afraid of each other. The true Illuminati encourage and enable open and honest communication and a free flow of true and accurate information so that people can see how little there is to fear.

As an example the founders of the network say, “There are many modern witches, but they do not fly around on brooms. There is a very progressive community of people who practice witchcraft who have never been able to fight misconceptions with a single voice.”

By itself an occult media network might not seem so much. But add it to the multitude of other signs and you see that we are definitely living in the last days prophesied in the Bible thousands of years ago.

Are you ready for the rapture? If not, get ready, stay ready, and keep looking up. Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
