

IT MIGHT BE TODAY

"Rabbi of the Lost Ark"

Week-after-week for the past seven years we have presented a Prophecy Update. This is #381 in that series.

The Bible is almost 30% prophecy, and most of the Bible's over 2500 prophecies have been fulfilled to the letter. We therefore expect the remaining prophecies of the Last Days to be literally fulfilled.

One key feature of the future seven-year Tribulation described in the prophecies is the existence, in Israel, of a Temple. Daniel and Ezekiel both spoke about it at length; and Jesus indicated that a Temple would be standing during the Tribulation.

You would therefore expect news about the search for the actual site of the Temple, as well as its artifacts. And that is exactly what you find in today's headlines.

breakingnewsisrael.com posted a story titled, Meet the "Jewish Indiana Jones" Searching for the Lost Ark of the Covenant.

Excerpts:

Meet Harry Moskoff, the man who is becoming known as the "Jewish Indiana Jones." A filmmaker and researcher by hobby and an IT specialist by trade, Moskoff has spent the last 25 years of his life dedicated to uncovering the location of the Lost Ark.

The Ark was last seen in 586BC when the Babylonians conquered Jerusalem and destroyed the First Temple. What happened to the Ark remains unknown until today.

Moskoff believes that he is getting closer to finding the true location of where the Ark is buried – right under the Temple Mount itself. His “Moskoff Theory” explains that where we believe the location of the Holy of Holies is – the current location of the Dome of the Rock – is in fact wrong.

Based on historical, archaeological, topographical and biblical evidence, the Moskoff Theory states (in simple terms) that when we find the true location of the Holy of Holies, the Ark of the Covenant may very well be found in a secret chamber built directly underneath, in a room built for it by King Solomon, who foresaw the destruction of the Temple. He Designed this underground Temple room to hide and protect the Ark for future generations until the advent of the Third Temple.

Moskoff explained that after researching various theories by well-known historians who claim to know the exact location of the Jewish Temples and where various features, such as the altar, stood, he realized that “they all cancelled each other out.”

“I found in one theory that some things just didn’t make sense with the original topography of the mountain. It didn’t jive,” he said. “So I went to another famous theory and found that things didn’t make sense from a scriptural perspective.”

"What made me pursue with interest the Lost Ark was a book published in 1982 called ‘In the Shadow of the Temple’ by the great Israeli archaeologist Meir Ben-Dov. That book changed my whole perspective,” Moskoff said.

In his book, Ben-Dov recalls the discovery of a tunnel spoken about in Jewish scripture that was used by ritually impure priests. The tunnel is said to run directly under the Temple Mount.

“The tunnel ran to the south under the Mount into a ritual bath with a fire and bathroom. This place is described in the Talmud. He (Ben-Dov) found that tunnel and it exists today, described in the exact same way,” Moskoff said.

“This tunnel was blocked up 150 years ago and it is clear that the original finders wanted it to remain closed. Over 2000 years old, the tunnel exists in complete form. If we go through that tunnel it would lead us to the exact location of the Temple because we know from scripture where it surfaced.”

“Following the tunnel would either prove or disprove the Moskoff Theory! It would tell us the exact place of the altar, Holy of Holies and the location of the Ark,” he explained.

I have no clue if Moskoff is on the right track. I'm simply showing, as we do each week, that prophecy is in the news - just as you'd expect.

There will be a Temple in the future Tribulation period. The church won't be on the earth for any portion of the seven-year Tribulation. Jesus promised to come to resurrect the dead believers and to rapture those who are alive.

His coming for the church is presented in the Bible as being imminent - meaning, at any moment, with no signs necessary for Him to come.

Are you ready for the rapture? If not, get ready, stay ready, and keep looking up. Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
