

IT MIGHT BE TODAY

"Israel in the News"

We are now in our eighth year of presenting a Prophecy Update. This is #384 in that series.

The Bible is almost 30% prophecy, and most of the Bible's over 2500 prophecies have been fulfilled to the letter. We therefore expect the remaining prophecies of the Last Days to be literally fulfilled.

Numerous prophecies tell us that Israel would be a nation in her ancient homeland, but that her existence will cause seemingly insurmountable problems for the nations of the world. Eventually Israel will stand alone, having no allies.

The United States is a strong ally of Israel, are we not?

Israel Today posted a story titled, Israel in 'Profound Disagreement' With Obama Administration.

Excerpts:

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu on Tuesday released a statement explaining that he intends to go ahead with a contentious address to the US Senate on March 3 in order to dissuade the Obama Administration from negotiating with Iran a nuclear agreement that would endanger the Jewish state.

“I am going to the United States not because I seek a confrontation with the President, but because I must fulfill my obligation to speak up on a matter that affects the very survival of my country,” said Netanyahu.

The Obama Administration has been irate over Netanyahu’s scheduled speech, and a number of top Democrats, including Vice President Joe Biden, have announced they will not be present for the Israeli leader’s appearance.

Another Jewish news agency, Arut Sheva, reported that, "European Union (EU) member states have been readying themselves to enforce sanctions on Israel for Jewish communities in Judea-Samaria, diplomats revealed Tuesday - and will strike hours after the March 17 [Jewish] elections."

Speaking of Europe and the Jews, according to the Weekly Standard, "Europe's Jewish population continues to decline. There are now approximately 1.4 million Jews living in Europe, compared to 9.5 million in 1939. Only 10% of the world’s Jews now live in Europe, and a mere 0.2% of Europeans are Jewish."

A month after ISIS terrorists walked into a Kosher market in France and opened fire, the Washington Post reported, "The question is not will [the Jews] leave [France] or won't they leave. The question has become when they will leave."

None of this surprises us. It is the kind of news, the type of trends, you'd expect from reading the prophecies of the end times.

Keep looking up. Jesus promised the church He would return for us, to resurrect the dead in Christ, and to rapture living believers. We won't all die, it says in the Bible; those Christians alive when Jesus returns for His church will be transformed into glorious resurrection bodies.

It could happen at any time.

Are you ready for the rapture? If not, get ready, stay ready, and keep looking up. Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
