"Build Back Better Worry" Prophecy Update #636

These are exciting times for believers in Christ. Especially if you are interested in Bible prophecy. Oddly, many believers are ignoring prophecy, even ridiculing those who think it is relevant to current events.

The Evangelical Free Church of America (EFCA) changed its position on end times doctrine. The denomination recently voted to drop the word "premillennial" from its statement of faith.

We reserve a few minutes Sunday morning to suggest news, or trends, that seem to be predicted by the many yet-to-be-fulfilled prophecies in the Bible.

We are careful to use recognized, reliable sources for news. It helps not to be accused of sensationalism - sadly, something all too common among some who talk about the End Times.

We're not saying the things we report are the fulfillment of prophecy - only that they are the things you'd expect in light of the Bible's unfulfilled prophecies.

The final book of the Bible, the Revelation, predicts what the world will look like in the End Times - especially during the seven year Great Tribulation. The world will be under the rule of one government, one economic system, and one leader.

A global, one-world order, is being openly pursued by many of the world's most powerful men.

The movement has a name - the Great Reset. It is described as "a proposal by the United Nations and the World Economic Forum (WEF) to rebuild the [global] economy sustainably following the COVID19 pandemic."

The Resetters openly admit that they are taking advantage of the global pandemic to implement their ominous agenda. They see it as their opportunity to correct a world that was broken.

There are certain catch-phrases being used by those in support of the Great Reset. One of them is, Build Back Better.

You might recognize it as the Joe Biden campaign slogan. He has created a website, buildbackbetter.com.

Truth is, the slogan was already in use by Resetters. Biden's use of it is a deliberate alignment with this movement.

Frank Hill of the North State Journal wrote, "Joe Biden's "Build Back Better" slogan, of which no one knew the meaning or purpose, is a direct lift from The Great Reset Manifesto, let's call it, concocted by the dreamy-eyed elites of the world who attend annual ritzy, star-studded winter retreats in Davos, Switzerland under the auspices of the World Economic Forum."

I read a good article about this on Reuters titled, The Great Reset is Trending.

Excerpts:

Put simply, [the Great Reset] is the blueprint for a complete transformation of the world economy. There will be no money, no private property, no democracy. Instead, every key decision - what you do for a living, how much stuff you consume, whether you can take a vacation - will be decided for you by unaccountable 'experts.'

The people pushing for the Great Reset are perfectly open about their plan. Indeed, they can scarcely stop talking about it.

One of these people is Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau. Trudeau says: "Building Back Better means giving support to the most vulnerable while maintaining our momentum on reaching the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. This pandemic has provided an opportunity for a reset. This is our chance to accelerate our pre-pandemic efforts to reimagine our economic systems that actually address global challenges like extreme poverty, inequality and climate change.”

It sounds innocuous enough. But in fact, there is deeper meaning to the phrases [Trudeau] uses: ‘Building Back Better’; ‘2030 Agenda’; ‘Sustainable Development’; and ‘reset’ are all buzzwords for the complete transformation of the global economy in order to create a New World Order.

Radical changes are coming that some pundits have referred to a ‘before coronavirus’ (BC) and ‘after coronavirus’ (AC) era. We will continue to be surprised by both the rapidity and unexpected nature of these changes.

Many of us are pondering when things will return to normal. The short response is: Never. Nothing will ever return to the [so-called] ‘broken’ sense of normalcy that prevailed prior to the crisis because the coronavirus pandemic marks a fundamental inflection point in our global trajectory.

I don’t know what is going to happen with the Great Reset. It seems as though we are on the brink of the changes that will prepare the world’s population for the Great Tribulation.

I’m simply pointing out that this was predicted over 2000 years ago by John in the Revelation. Simultaneously we’re seeing the implementation and widespread acceptance of invasive biometric technologies that could be the precursors of the socio-economic system that will eventually be usurped by the antichrist.

The apostle Paul noted that the god of this age has blinded the eyes of nonbelievers. They need the light of the Gospel. That needs to be priority one with us. The church’s mission never changes: Go, and as you are going, make disciples.

We believe the resurrection and rapture of the church is imminent. It could happen any moment; nothing needs to happen before it. It will definitely happen before the Tribulation.

Jesus will return in the clouds. He will raise the dead in Christ. He will transform the bodies of living believers to glorified, resurrection bodies. We will all join Him in Heaven while the earth endures one final seven-year campaign of severe evangelism.

Are you ready for the rapture? If not, Get ready; Stay ready; Keep looking up.

Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
