"Where Have All the Freedom's Gone?" Prophecy Update #681

Quote: "Because the Bible is the only book which gives us an accurate forecast of the future, we must turn to its pages in order that we may be delivered from inexcusable ignorance and be prepared as God unfolds His prophetic program."

We reserve a few minutes to discuss current trends that you'd expect from reading Bible prophecy.

We are futurists. We interpret all unfulfilled prophetic passages as future events in a literal, physical, apocalyptic, and global context.

Biometrics, Artificial Intelligence, cashless commerce, the manipulation of human DNA, global government, the exponential growth of human knowledge, one-world religion, and the rebirth of national Israel are End Times developments the Bible predicts.

All of these are increasingly trending in the news.

The Bible predicts mankind's future during a seven-year period called The Great Tribulation.

A world leader will rise. Citizens under his rule will not be able to buy or sell unless they agree to worship him. I should also mention that he will exercise the power of life and death over those who refuse to bow the knee.

Control over buying and selling involves control over pretty much everything. If the government wants to restrict your movements, they will. If they want to track you, they will. You get the idea.

We are experiencing on a small scale what this kind of control will be full scale in the future.

The vaccine mandates, whether you are for them or against them, control you.

Your freedom of movement, your freedom of speech, and your ability to work, have been impacted.

I read an article titled, Germany locks down unvaccinated people.

Excerpts:

Germany is following Austria's example in locking-down unvaccinated people.

Chancellor Angela Merkel announced that the move is 'necessary' to tackle a 'very worrying' fourth wave of the pandemic that is overwhelming hospitals, and blamed the unvaccinated for driving the surge.

Access to public, cultural and sports events and to restaurants will be restricted to those who have been vaccinated or who have recovered. The Chancellor added the federal government would also consider a request by regional governments for legislation allowing them to require that care and hospital workers be vaccinated.

Saxony, the region hardest hit by the wave, is considering shutting theatres, concert halls and soccer games.

Finance minister and chancellor-in-waiting Olaf Scholz said: 'To get through the winter, we will see drastic measures that have not been taken before.'

The Czech Republic has already followed Austria's lead by banning unjabbed people from access to public events, bars and restaurants.

And Slovakia is also considering imposing a similar measure which would see unvaccinated people banned from non-essential stores, shopping malls, gyms, pools, hotels and mass public gatherings for at least three weeks.

Earlier this week, Belgium made face-masks compulsory and introduced working from home instructions.

The Prime Minister of Greece announced additional restrictions for the country's unvaccinated population. Access to more indoor spaces will be limited to the vaccinated, he said during a televised address. Proof of a negative test will no longer be sufficient for unvaccinated people to enter cinemas, theaters, museums and gymnasiums, he said. The new restrictions broaden those imposed in mid-September, which barred the unvaccinated from the indoor areas of cafes and restaurants.

Another article was titled, *Bank of America Initiates Pilot Program Separating Vaccinated From Unvaccinated Employees.

Excerpts:

A source has disclosed a pilot program beginning November 18 that plans to separate vaccinated from unvaccinated employees at an administration building in Jacksonville, Florida.

Those who haven't disclosed their vaccinated status, or have disclosed their status as unvaccinated, can only return to work on a separate floor.

"The unvaccinated will be stripped of their access and given access only to one floor, with offices and a restroom, but they can't go anywhere else," the source said. "Essentially, they're discriminating."

I'm not commenting on the mandates. I'm pointing out that they resemble what the Bible predicts for the reign of the Antichrist. It is the kind of thing you'd expect as a futurist reading the Bible.

We believe the resurrection and rapture of the church are imminent. It could happen at any moment; nothing needs to happen before it. It will occur before the Great Tribulation.

Are you ready for the rapture? If not, Get ready; Stay ready; Keep looking up.

Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
