

IT MIGHT BE TODAY

"Kid Stuff"

Prophecy Update #739

Christians are encouraged to look for "the blessed hope - the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ" (Titus 2:13).

We look ahead to tomorrow, living with the awareness Jesus could come today.

One of the ways we look ahead to tomorrow is to consider the hundreds of unfulfilled prophecies in the Bible. We can expect the world to be moving in the direction predicted for the End Times.

We reserve a few minutes Sunday morning to suggest news, or trends, that seem to be predicted by our futurist reading of the Bible:

- To avoid sensationalism, we are careful to use recognized, reliable sources for news.
- We're not saying the things we report are the fulfillment of prophecy. We're saying that they are the things you'd expect to be happening in the build-up to the future seven year Time of Jacob's Trouble.

The apostle Paul wrote, "But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power" (Second Timothy 3:1-5).

Let's take a look at "disobedient to parents." Kids have always been disobedient to their parents. What if it has the application of not needing to "obey their parents?" In other words, what if it might include the lack of parental consent?

I read an article titled, New Bill Would Have California Parents Lose Parental Rights At Age 12.

Excerpts:

Snuck into AB 665, legislation ostensibly about extending mental health care to lower-income California youths, is a provision that effectively would terminate parents' rights over their kids as soon as they turn 12.

The California Family Council warns that this bill "would allow children as young as 12 years old to consent to being placed into state funded group homes without parental permission or knowledge."

As long as a mental health professional signs off on it, the kids can go to such a group home - and it doesn't matter what their parents think.

"This bill gives a stranger, a school psychologist, power to decide whether a sixth or seventh grader comes home from school that day, and that's terrifying," Erin Friday, a California mom of two teens, tells The Daily Signal. Why is this needed? The article explains, "LGBT youth are likely to avoid using public mental health services if they believe that doing so will cause them to have to reveal their LGBT status to their parents or peers," the Center for American Progress said in a report.<sup>1</sup> parentalrights.org reports the following:

Parental rights.org says, "Too often, the area of education sees the tension between parents and a group of professional elites who believe they can better make decisions for all children."

- Laws in a majority of states limit or entirely deny to parents any "right" to be present on school grounds where their child is in attendance.
- The Ninth Circuit in Fields v. Palmdale (2005) held that, "Parents...have no constitutional right...to prevent a public school from providing its students with whatever information it wishes to provide, sexual or otherwise, when and as the school determines that it is appropriate to do so."<sup>2</sup>

Overthrowing parental consent is a severe form of disobedience to parents. It's to be expected as the world is hurtling towards the Time of Jacob's Trouble and the totalitarian global rule of the antichrist.

The resurrection and rapture of the church are imminent. It could happen any moment; nothing needs to happen before it.

Jesus will come, in the clouds, and raise the dead believers of the Church Age.

He will transform the bodies of living believers to glorified, resurrection bodies. We will join Him in Heaven while the earth endures one final seven- year campaign of severe evangelism.

Are you ready for the rapture? If not, Get ready; Stay ready; Keep looking up.

Ready or not, Jesus is coming!
